

1. Master theoretic knowledge on hygienic basics of rational organization of physical and labour training, occupational orientation of schoolchildren in modern conditions.
2. Master methods of medical and occupational consultations, occupational selection and prognosis of the level of pupils' occupational activity success.
3. Become familiar with methods of the sanitary and chemical research of children toys.
4. Master the method of hygienic assessment of manuals and school textbooks.
5. Extend the students' knowledge on the nutrition peculiarities of different age groups and occupations people, patients.
6. To strengthen the students' knowledge of the hygienic requirements concerning the surgical, infectious diseases and other specialized departments.
7. Consolidate, extend and methodize knowledge about radiation hazard for environment.
8. Acquaint with peculiarities of Chernobyl accident.
9. Learn the units' filed location waste treatment and management hygienic requirements.
10. Describe peculiarities of working conditions of personnel of the civil rescue units taking part in elimination of consequences of emergency situations and catastrophes.
11. Acquire familiarity with means and technique of medical service of the rescue and civil units for hygienic provision of working conditions of the rescuers who eliminate consequences of catastrophes
12. Become familiar with peculiarities of the life support of non-governmental units, rescue teams and affected population during catastrophes and in other emergency situations (location, bath and laundry service).
13. Master theoretical knowledge about healthy lifestyle and its basic patterns.
14. Master the methods of the hygienic assessment of different purpose fabrics by their physical and chemical properties.